Visual Arts Critique Group Forming at Ludington Area Center for the Arts

Ludington MI: A visual arts critique group is forming at the Ludington Center for the Arts with an organizational meeting on Wednesday, June 23 at 10 a.m.

The group will gather monthly at the Center to share their work and receive feedback from others in the group. Participation is open to artists working in any art media.

An art critique offers the artist an opportunity to see his or her work through the eyes of an audience, to learn the language of art analysis and to create a community of local artists. Work to be critiqued can include work in progress or finished work.

All levels of experience are invited to attend the organizational meeting. For more information, or if you would like to be involved but can't attend the first meeting, call the Art Center at 845-2787.

For more information, contact the Ludington Area Center for the Arts during business hours: Tuesday-Saturday, 12-5:30 pm. The Center is located at 107 S. Harrison in the historic former home of the United Methodist Church in downtown Ludington. Parking for Center events is available in the public lot south of the Center at the corner of Harrison and Loomis.
