Free “Make Sweet Music” Workshop for Kids 9-14, July 22 & 23 at the Ludington Area Center for the Arts

LUDINGTON—As part of the Sweet Summer Celebration in July, kids ages 9-14, are invited to a free music workshop on July 22 and 23 at the Ludington Area Center for the Arts.

Visiting musicians, Aaron Meyer and Tim Ellis, will teach children how to write and record a song. Children ages 9-11 can sign up for one of two timeslots: Thursday, July 22 or Friday, July 23, noon to 2 p.m. Twelve to 14-year-olds can attend one of these timeslots: Thursday, July 22 or Friday, July 23 2-4 p.m.

Thursday's participants will perform their song at the Ludington Area Center for the Arts' Sweet Summer Variety Talent Show on the evening of July 22. Friday's participants will perform at Friday Night Live on the evening of July 23.

For more information and to register for the "Make Sweet Music!" workshops, please contact the Ludington Area Center for the Arts at 231-845-2787 or info@ludingtonartscouncil.org.

The free workshops are made possible thanks to the following Sweet Summer Celebration sponsors: Kari Karr Design/Marketing, Hardman Construction, Metalworks, Northwestern Bank, Shelby State Bank, and Western Land Services.

The workshop is part of the new Sweet Summer Celebration, a multi-day festival of arts and culture, which will be held from Wednesday, July 21 through Saturday, July 24 at venues around downtown Ludington. More information about the Sweet Summer Celebration is available at www.sweetludington.org.

The Center is at 107 S. Harrison in the historic former home of the United Methodist Church in downtown Ludington. Parking for Center events is available in the public lot south of the Center at the corner of Harrison and Loomis streets.
